

UF College of Dentistry IEDP Internationally-Educated Dentist Programs

Two-Year AEGD
at the Hialeah Clinic

Four-Year DMD
in Gainesville

Two-Year AEGD at the Hialeah Clinic Application Information
Applications accepted through PASS on the ADEA web site at www.adea.org

Application requirements for AEGD program:

- Complete the PASS application
Program number: AEGD155
PASS Application deadline: September 1, 2010
Program deadline: September 15, 2010
Required number of evaluation forms: 2
- D.M.D./D.D.S. degree, or equivalent from an International Dental School
- You must be a United States citizen, or have a permanent resident visa and proof of your status. (No student or visitor VISAS accepted.)
- Passed Parts I and II, National Dental Board Examination
- Scored at least an 80 on the TOEFL (Internet-based version)

In addition to the above, send the following to UF College of Dentistry:

- Original National Dental Board Dental Examination score report directly to UFCD
- Official dental school transcript
--translated and certified in a course-by-course evaluation report by Educational Credential Evaluators, Inc. (ECE)
- Original dental school diploma
- Original TOEFL score report
- Supplemental Application
- Supplemental Processing Fee

For more information:

Visit our web site
www.dental.ufl.edu/admissions/IEDP
Email: ggriffis@dental.ufl.edu
Call (352) 273-5956

The UF College of Dentistry offers two programs tailored to meet the educational and licensure requirements of internally educated dentists. Our four-year DMD program is based at the college in Gainesville, Florida. For more information about the DMD program, please visit our web site at www.dental.ufl.edu/admissions.

UF UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA
College of Dentistry